

LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

It is my great pleasure to recommend Ms. ABBAVARAM SUSMITHA, an graduate of my department, who is keen to be part of your institution for your graduation course. I've known her for the past one year, offering course in the field of FINANCE in MASTER OF BUSINESS AND ADMINISTRATION. She's deeply enthusiastic, eager for knowledge, and she's constantly watching to learn something new.

During her interaction with me, she proved to be a student with high potential and a promising talent in her field of study. She has displayed a great deal of self-confidence, analytical capacity, personal character combined with leadership qualities. Her innate ability to explain things from simple concepts, her persistence and logical approach to problem-solving, and above all, her realistic approach to concept analysis, make her the perfect candidate for a graduate degree.

Ms. ABBAVARAM SUSMITHA has also proven to be equally better at college level in both academic and extracurricular activities in and out of college. She is an up-and-coming student, and her active participation in other extracurricular activities gives her an advantage over the other student. Furthermore, she is highly fluent in speech and expression and has a strong persuasive and mature personality.

In conclusion, Ms. ABBAVARAM SUSMITHA is always astounding me with her determination to continue enhancing her overall stature. I am sure that her talent would reverence your highly regarded institution. I hope you can accept this appeal and admit it to your esteemed university. I would be very grateful to you for your consideration.

I wish her all the success in her pursuits of academic advancements and career.

Sincerely,
